

HOW DID WE GET HERE?

THE EVENT:
 Between June 1922 and January 1923, Lincoln Park went from a population of 300 to 6,000. Growth that spontaneous leaves little room for city planning, yet the city remained prosperous for 50 years. Destroying the legacy of the past will not necessitate prosperity for the future.